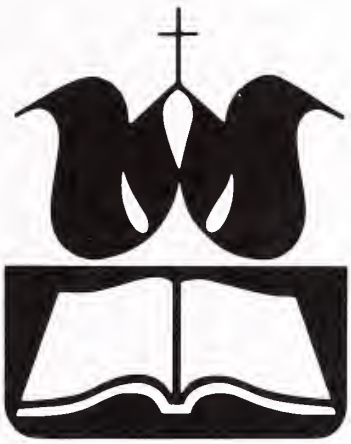
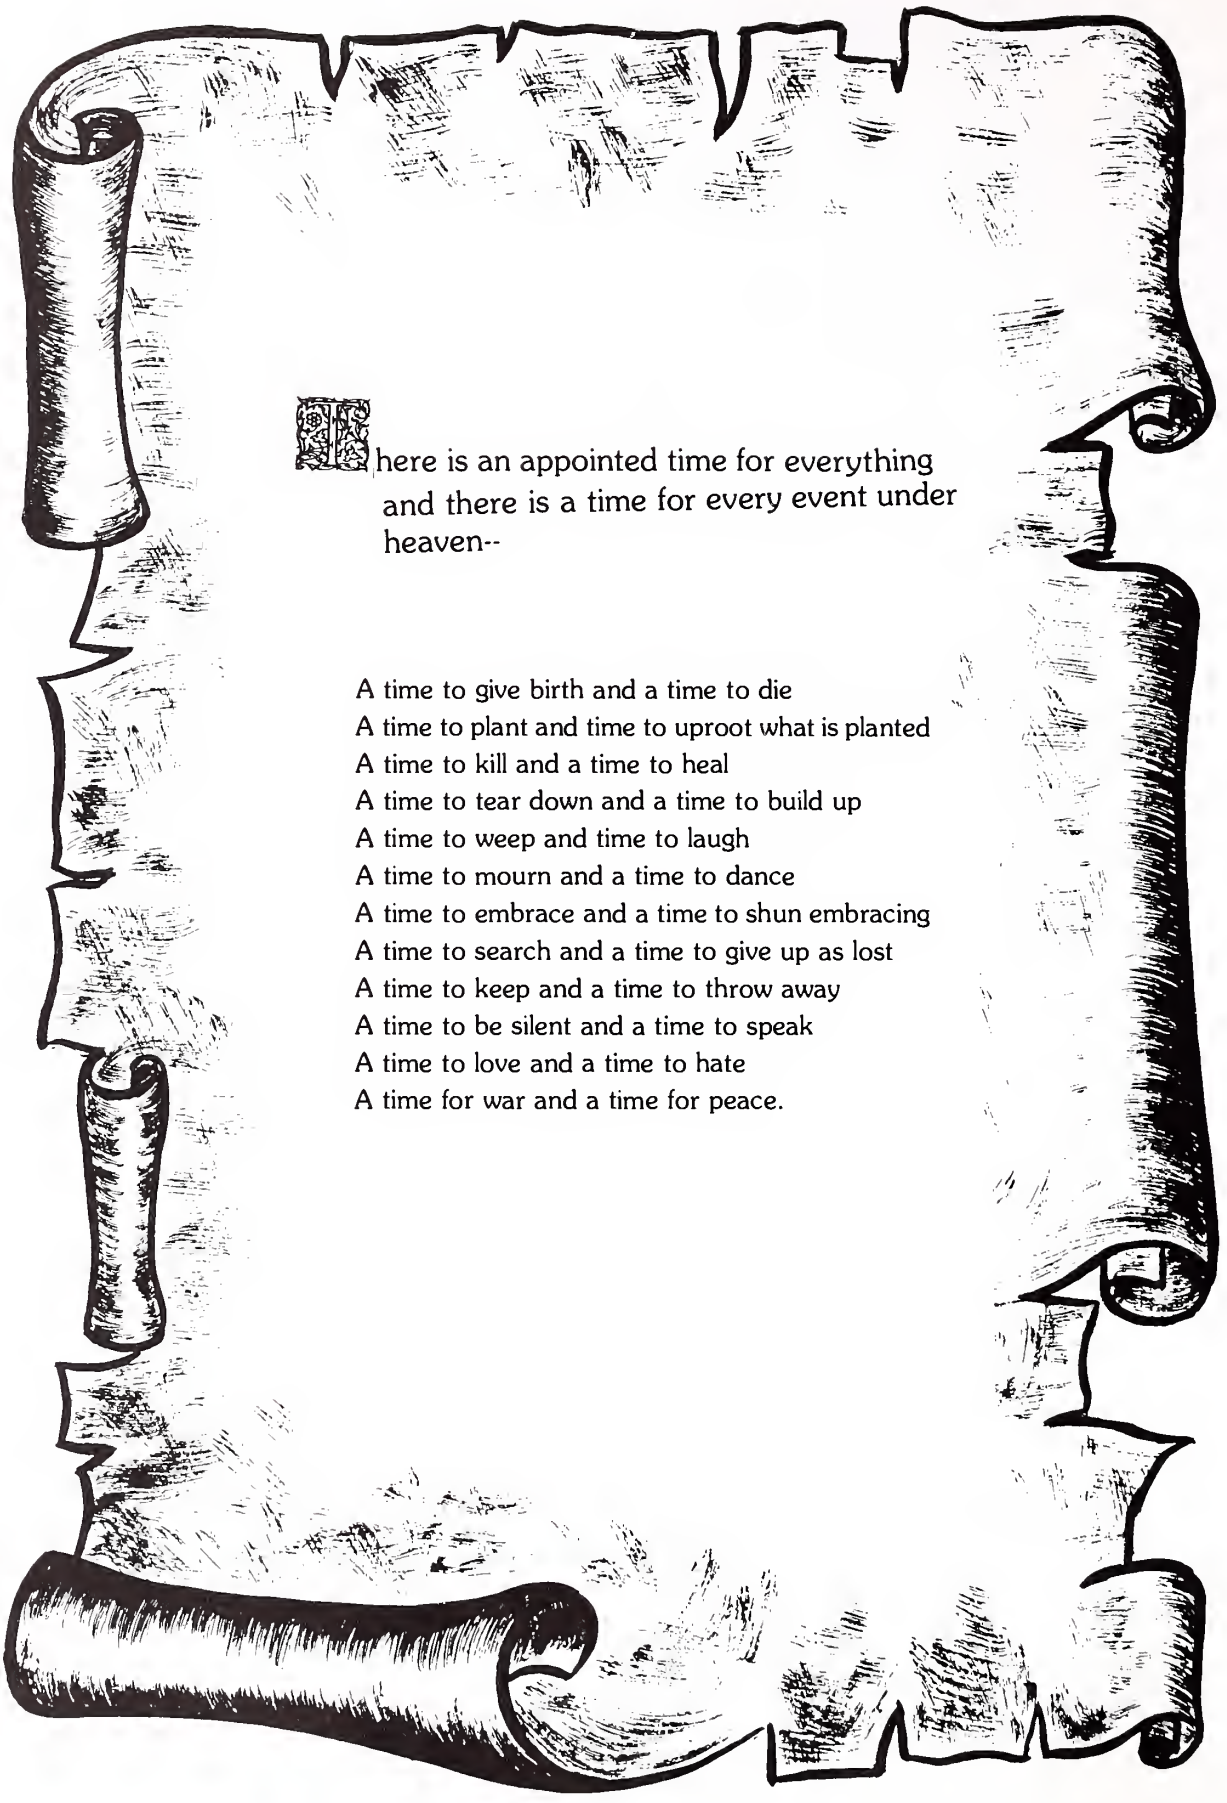
THERE IS A TIME . . . .



Western Bible College

1977-1978



There is an appointed time for everything and there is a time for every event under heaven--

A time to give birth and a time to die
A time to plant and time to uproot what is planted
A time to kill and a time to heal
A time to tear down and a time to build up
A time to weep and time to laugh
A time to mourn and a time to dance
A time to embrace and a time to shun embracing
A time to search and a time to give up as lost
A time to keep and a time to throw away
A time to be silent and a time to speak
A time to love and a time to hate
A time for war and a time for peace.

Dedication

Mr. David MacLeod

In our years at Western, we have seen Dave MacLeod in many places. He can be found in the classroom, in his office, at the pool table, and in the dining hall, but no matter where we see him, one fact remains apparent. This is a man of God.

Dave has been a guiding force behind many of us here at Western. His grasp of scripture and the value he places on communicating this same understanding to students have earned him honor among the students and a respectable place on Western's faculty.

Dave will be leaving at the end of this year to pursue his doctorate at Dallas Theological Seminary. We will watch him go with a distinct feeling of loss and he may go with the knowledge that all of us who have had the privilege of studying under him have been richly blessed.

Thank you, Dave MacLeod, for that part of your life you have shared with us.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

It is for your guidance in our study and your dedication to that same study that we dedicate the 1977-78 yearbook to you, Mr. MacLeod.

TO

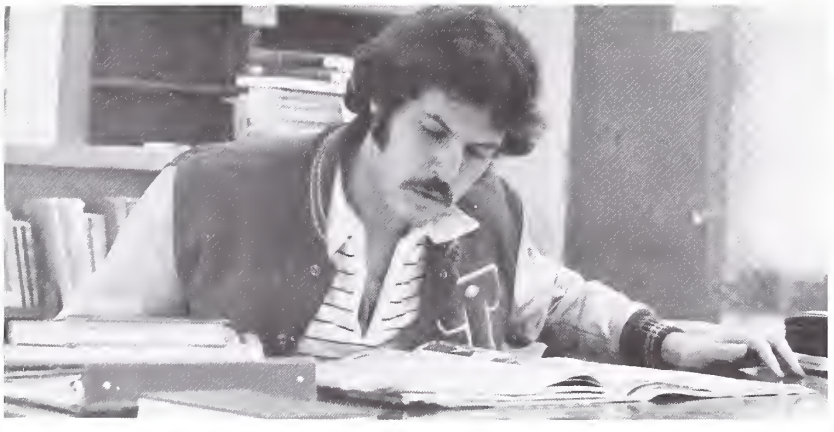
OUR NEW PRESIDENT

President Boyd,

It is with glad expectation that we anticipate your tenure as President of Western Bible College. Realizing that the task before you is neither simple or ever-joyful, we offer honest efforts to understand and our fervent prayers for your success and well-being. We bid you fare well, not as a good-bye, but as a felicitous greeting.

". . . Forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ." Philippians 3:13,14.

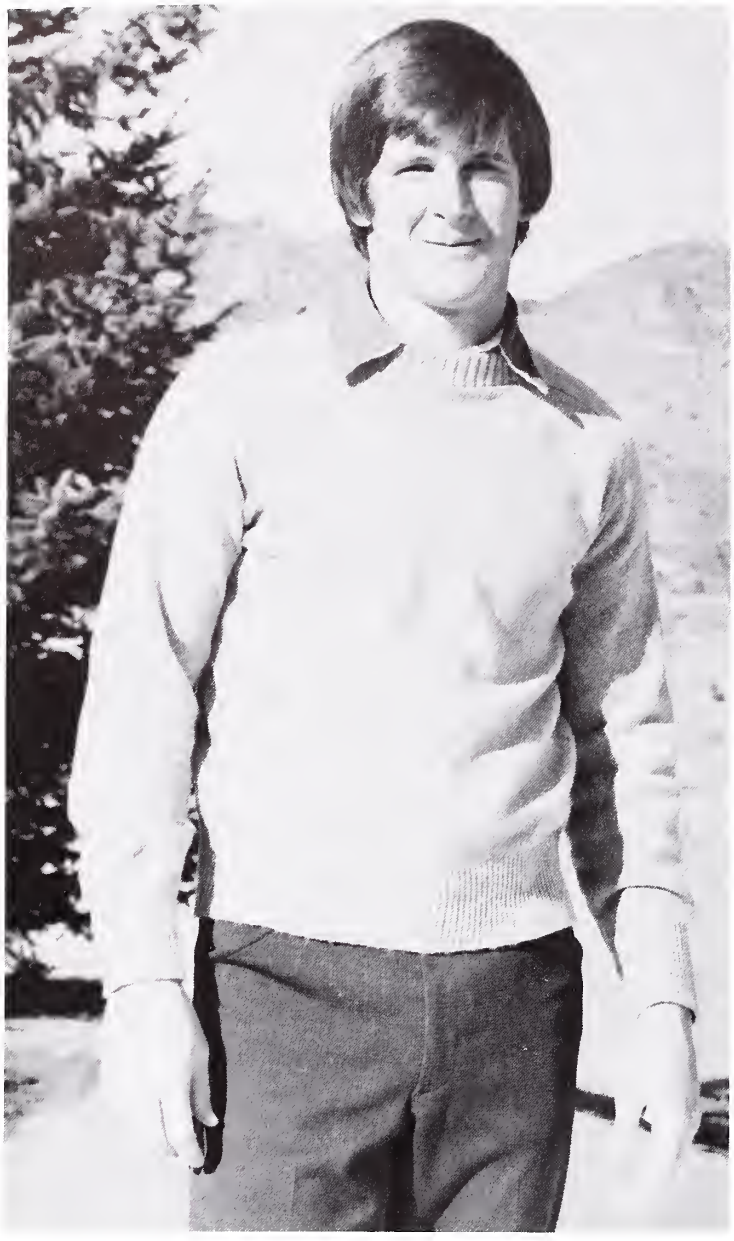
Mr. William David Boyd



A Time to Weep and a Time to Laugh. . .
In jubilation we view
The completion of this stage of our journey.
In grief we view
The parting of our ways.

We have lost some battles.
But the war is ours!
We weep over those things we must leave behind,
But we throw our heads back in laughter of exultation at that which we have accomplished
And the glory of our joy shines
In the expectation of our future.

SENIORS



James Anderson

That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings being made conformable unto His death.

Philippians 3:10

Delight thyself also in the Lord and He shall give thee the desires of thine heart. Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him; and He shall bring it to pass.

Psalm 37:4,5

Scott Bailey

If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, fulfill ye My joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

Philippians 2:1,2

Randall Battey

John Cordova

Senior Class Vice President

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to Thy word. With my whole heart have I sought Thee: O let me not wander from my commandments.

Psalm 119:9,10

Thus saith the Lord, let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches: But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD.

Jeremiah 10:23,24

Dann Glendenning

Dave Fury

Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord and whose trust is the Lord. For he will be like a tree planted by the water, that extends its roots by the stream and will not fear when the heat comes; but its leaves will be green, and it will not be anxious in a year of drought nor cease to yield fruit.

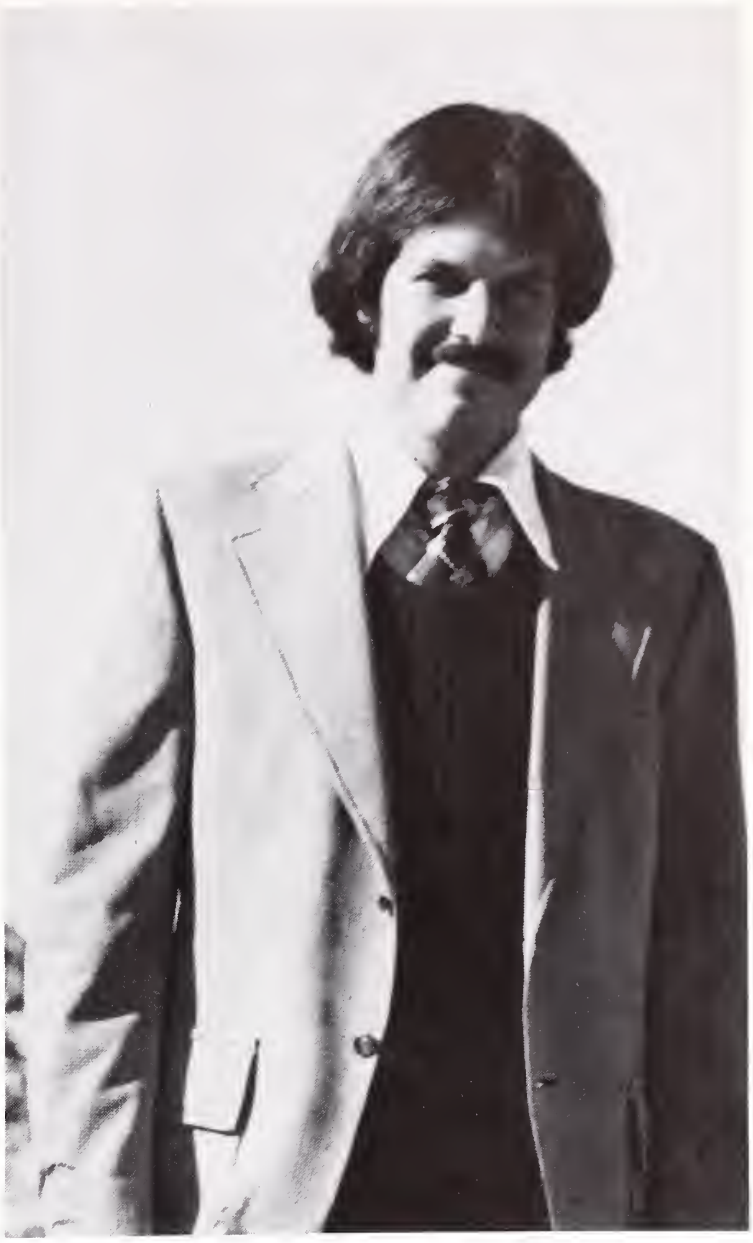
Jeremiah 17:7,8

I will bless the Lord at all times: His praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: The humble shall hear thereof and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together.

Psalm 34:1-3

Deb Hanvey

Senior Class Secretary



Bill Honsberger

Student Council Representative

Yet the Lord will command His lovingkindness in the daytime and in the night His song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life. Why art thou cast down, o my soul? And why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God: For I shall yet praise Him, who is the health of my countenance and my God.

Shari Kanengieter

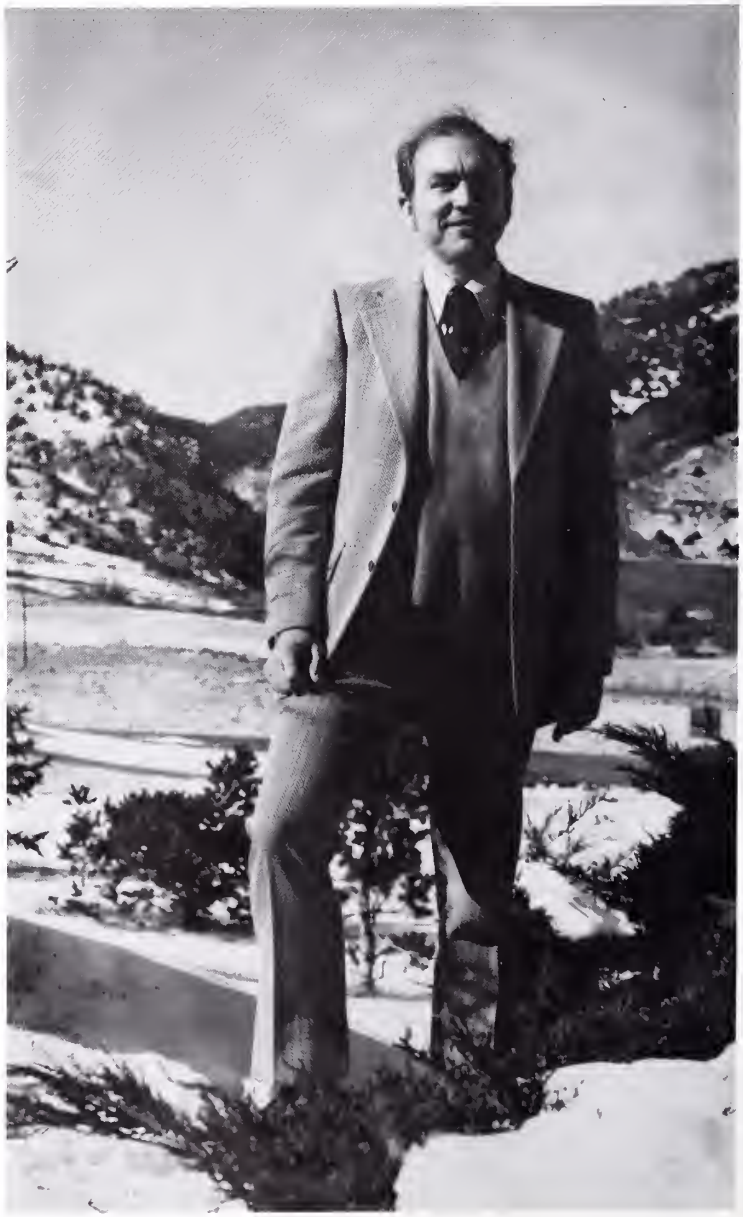
And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him.

Colossians 3:17

But refuse profane and old wives fables and exercise rather unto Godliness.

I Timothy 4:7

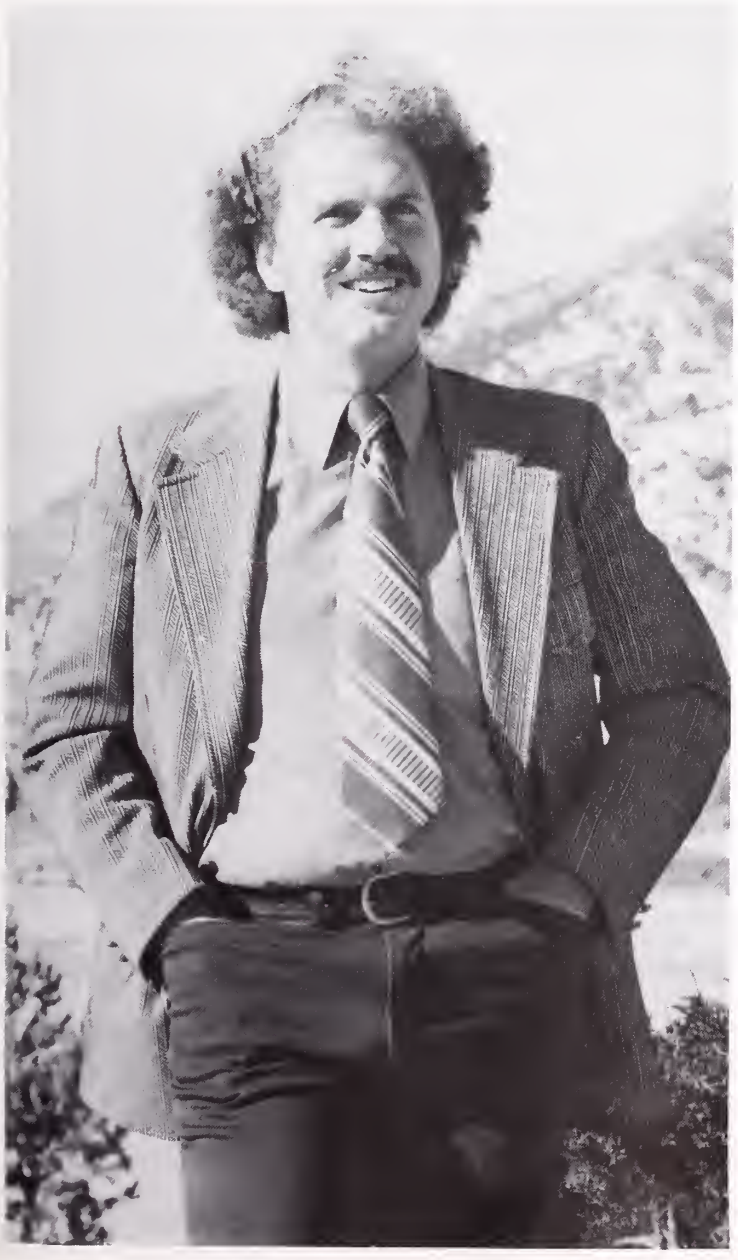
Joe Kirby



And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart.

Deuteronomy 6:6

Paul Kroeze



Tom Larkin

Come, you children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

James Leake

Senior Class President

Give thanks in all circumstances for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

I Thessalonians 5:18

That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made comfortable unto His death.

Philippians 3:10

Mike Neely

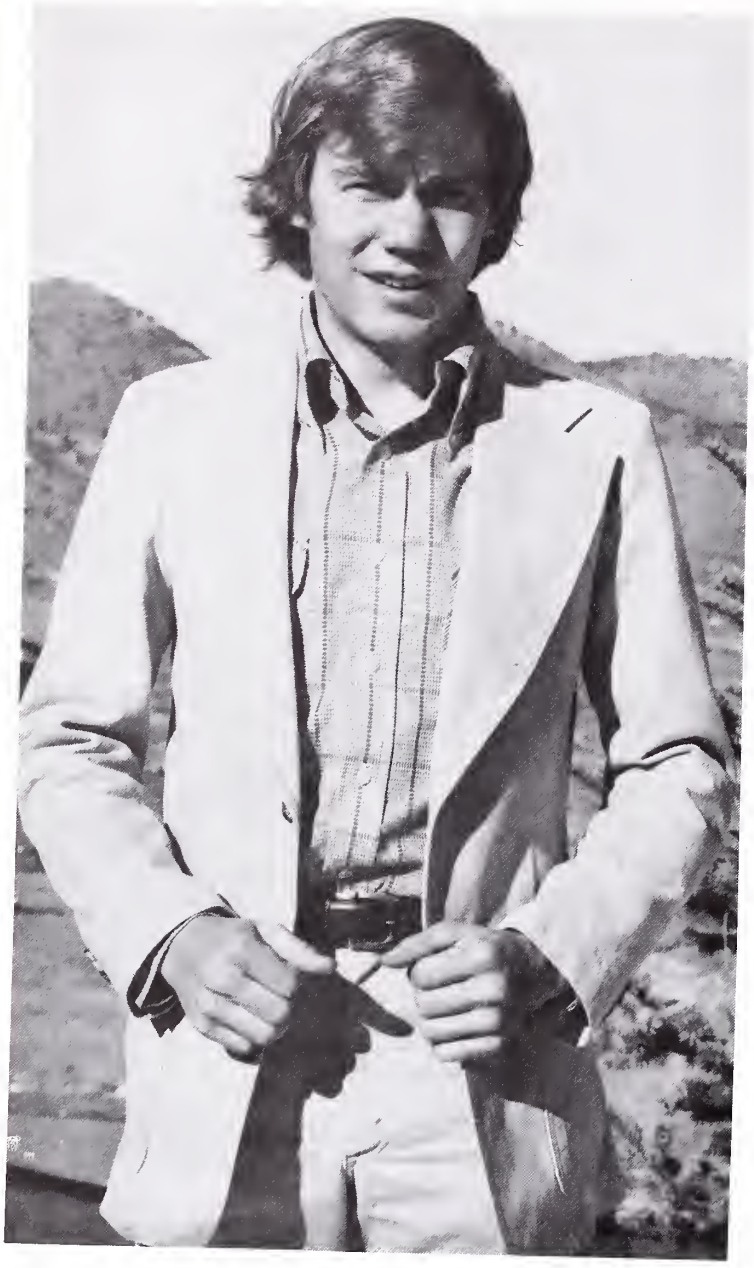
Trust in the Lord with all your heart and do not rely on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make straight your paths.

Deb Russell

Dave Silver

I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Jesus Christ.

Philippians 3:14



If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any mar minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: That God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ to Whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen

I Peter 4:11

David Vawser

Kevin Stafford

For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that ye through His poverty might be rich.

II Corinthians 8:9

he depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! w unsearchable are His judgements and His ways past finding t! For of Him and through Him and to Him are all things! To om be glory forever. Amen

Romans 11:33,36

isa Watson

Stephen Whitney

Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: For I am called by Thy name, o Lord God of Hosts.

Jeremiah 15:16

Joy Wigle

Rest in the Lord and wait patiently for Him: Fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

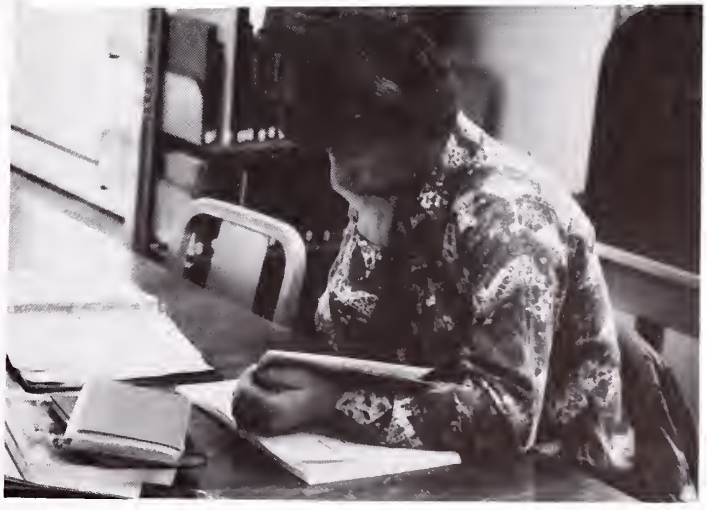
Psalm 37:7

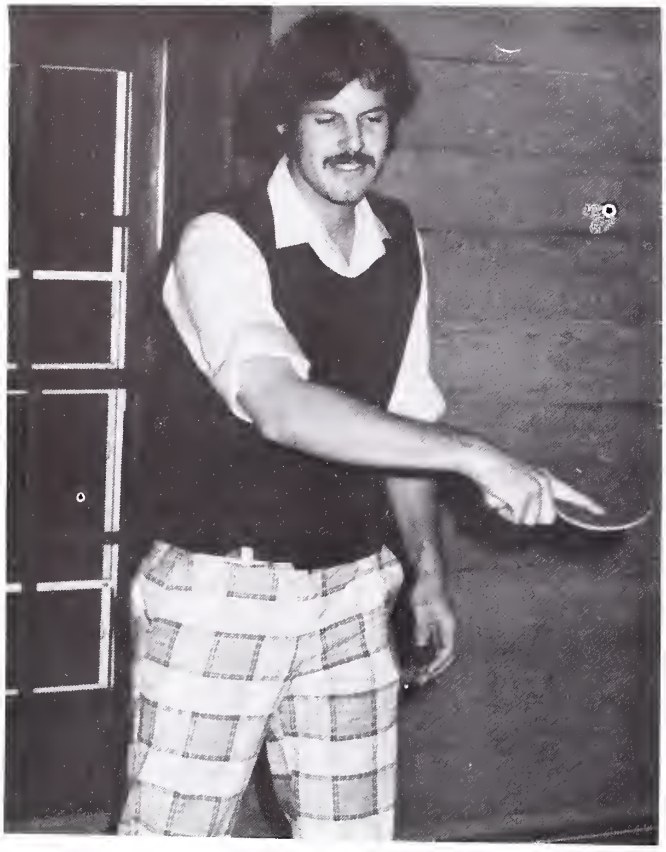
I do not know what still awaits or what tomorrow brings but with the glad salute of faith I hail its opening wings. For this I know that in my Lord shall all my needs be met. And I can trust the heart of Him who has not failed me yet.

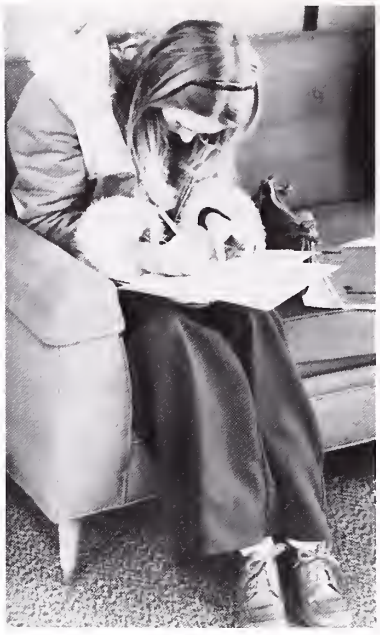
Vern Wigle

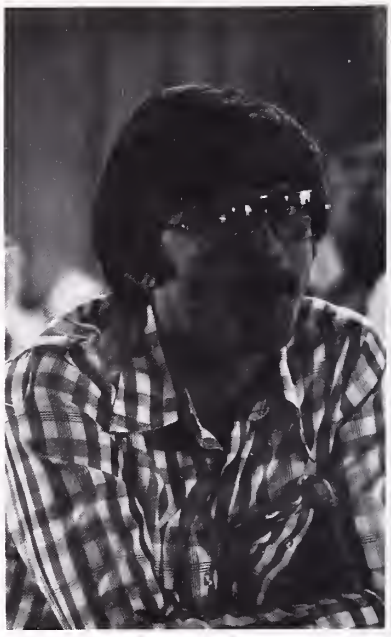
Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, acording to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end.

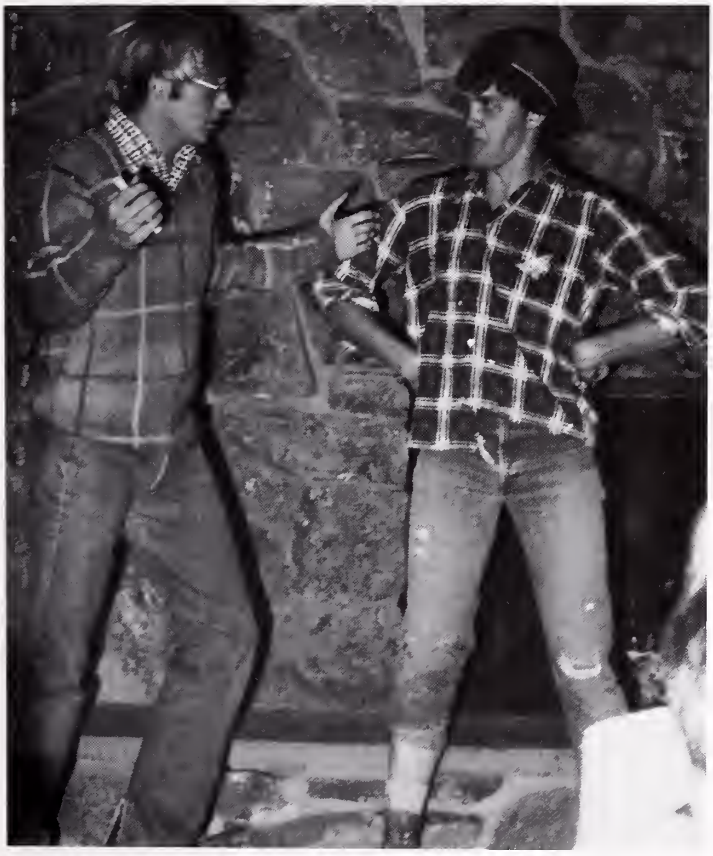
Ken Will

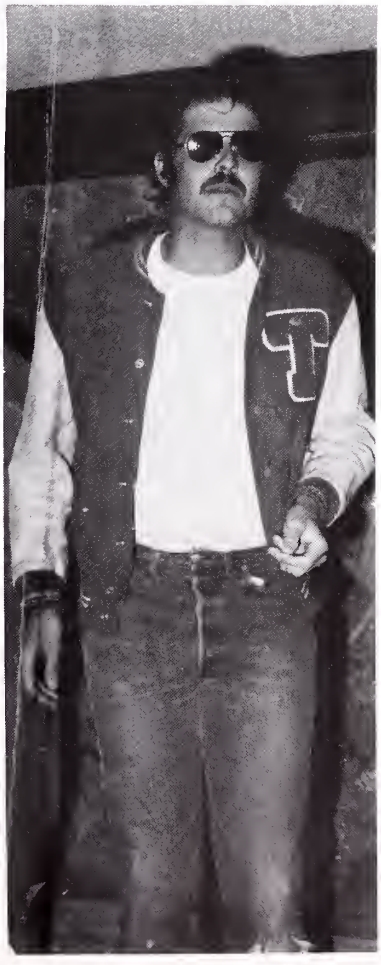












A Time to Plant and a Time to Uproot What is Planted

Until this time our lives have been cultivated.
The time has arrived which constrains us to take account.

Today we must winnow out that which chokes our effectiveness
And carefully graft into our being that which will grow into a tree of life.

A Time to Search and a Time to Give Up as Lost

We have been engaged in a mission
The mission of every man--
To find that which Is*.*
And we have found Him!

That which is-- God,
Our Lord, has become the culmination of our search.
Within our search we have discarded,
Given up as lost,
Those things which would hinder us
So that we may grasp that which is the object of our mission--
God.

A Time to Give Birth and a Time to Die

We have come here
And in the coming
We are giving birth
For here is where what we are Emerges
And what we will be begins life.

We have come here
And in the coming
We watch old things die
For here is where what we were is Translated
And new life begins.

A Time to Throw Stone and a Time to Gather Stones

We practice with a goal of perfection.
We have early morning meetings
and seemingly get nowhere.
We plan, appoint committees, rehearse.
We work together to produce a product that has our name on it.
We are blessed through our work.
Others are blessed by our product.

If I had all the riches this world has to give;
All the comfort that it brings; never needing anything
I could search the whole world over far and wide
To find this precious love
That was sent from God above.

If I had all the riches this world has to give;
And I gave it all away; every penny to my name
To some beggar on life's dark and lonely street;
All the kindness found in me could not win eternity.

It wouldn't be enough, no, it wouldn't be enough
To buy one splinter of the tree that Jsus died on.
And it couldn't pay the price for one single drop of blood
That was shed for my salvation.

PLAY

In the heated cacophony of life
There flows the cool harmony of Love
And in its counterpoint dane Love's possessor's.
Lifting their voices to Love's Great Author,
They desire to be an ever'sung paean of glory
And blithely render life's hymnal in cheerful work and delighted play.

PRACTICE

A song is a beautiful thing
Voices join in full-throated melody
And lift to blend in glorious harmony.

Men's hearts are moved;
E'en lifted to ecstacy with a song
For a song is a beautiful thing.

But when I sing, Lord,
Let it not be for this alone
Lest fruitless I be when day is done.

Touch, Thou, my lips.
Thy beauty let me see.
And fill my heart with love eternally
That men may come to know and adore Thee.

Lord, this prayer I bring.
Lord, for Thee I sing.

PERFORMANCE

To seek the unsought
To teach the unsought
To bring the unbrought
This is God's great command.

To tell the untold
To bring to the fold
To let them behold
The Christ who died for every land.

There are souls who have never heard
The message of God's own Word,
The news that salvation is offered to all
Who on Jesus, the Saviour, will call.

There are people across the sea
Who from bondage could be set free
If we would be willing to spend and be spent
That the nations would hear and repent.

To tell the untold
To bring to the fold
To let them behold the Christ
Who died for every land.

A Time for War and a Time for Peace

The lessons of defeat,
the exhilaration of victory,
It keeps them going.
Play after play,
They grit their teeth
and plow through defense.
Get that ball to the goal--
either over the line or through the hoop.
The unity of teamwork brings victory,
even through defeat.

VICTORY!

Western 92'. . . . Rockmont 91

Don't Quit
When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When funds are low and debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about,
When he might have won had he stuck it out
Don't give up, though the pace seems slow--
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler has given up,
When he might have captured the victor's cup.
And he learned too late, when the night slipped down
How close he was to the vicotr's crown.

Success is failure turned inside out--
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt
And you can never tell how close you are
It may be near when it seems afar.
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit--
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

Ruth

1977 ..... 1978

This is part,
This is not all.

For each person carries with him
his own memories of this year
The friends, the events, the people.

Some of us will go on,
Some of us will return,
None of us will ever be the same.

Change is constant
The only thing unchangeable is the Word of God.

"Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter. Fear God and keep His commandments. For this is the whole duty of man."
